Discover Your Savannah

THURSDAY, March 22

Arrive in Savannah & make your way to the Historic Planters Inn, www.plantersinnsavannah.com. Group Reception & Orientation. Complementary Wine & Cheese. Short stroll to dinner at the historic "Old Pink House".

FRIDAY, March 23

Enjoy Breakfast at hotel. Followed by A "Historic Savannah" & "Midnight in the Garden of Good & Evil" Tour. The history of our fair city will come to life as your guide & hostess, "A Savannah Hat Lady", weaves her magic, telling history from James Edward Oglethorpe to present day gossip. Tour includes the Cathedral of St. John the Baptist & Bonaventure Cemetery, one of America's most magnificent funeral statuary sites.

Enjoy al fresco-style dining in the historic district as you immerse yourself in Savannah charm and culture.

Celebrate 100 YEARS OF GIRL SCOUTS with entrance to the Juliette Gordon Low Birthplace.

Wine & Cheese Reception at the hotel.

Join Chef Darin at 700 Kitchen Cooking School at the Forsyth Mansion. Take the tastes & flavors of the Low Country back with you as you learn of our unique culture & cuisine.

SATURDAY, March 24

Breakfast at hotel.

Morning Festival Tour of Homes Stroll Savannah's streets at your leisure as you visit some of the finest homes & gardens in the city.

Lunch and free time to explore "Your Savannah".

Experience A traditional Southern high tea this evening as you journey back to the "Old South". Whether a Belle or Gentleman, no education would be complete without learning specific social cues. Learn how traditions, etiquette, & style transcend time.

An informal hat fashion show, featuring the finest fashion hats of the South will be featured as well as a lesson or two in the mysterious & historic language of the fan. Late evening on your own.

Sunday, March 25

Breakfast at hotel.

Optional Mass at the Cathedral.

Morning Low Country Tour, which inspired Johnny Mercers' award-winning song "Moon River". We'll highlight the Isle of Hope with its breathtaking views, marshes & waterways, as well as a visit to Wormsloe Plantation & Bethesda Orphanage established 1734. Bethesda Chapel hosted the recent marriage of Paula Deen. Tour includes a visit to Byrd Cookie Company, a must see and stop. Lunch on your own in City Market with free time to explore.

Early afternoon we'll depart for historic Tybee Island, Savannah's beach and playground, where the elite eat in their bare feet! Relax, unwind and set your clocks to Tybee time as you sail to your dinner destination. Enjoy wine, cheese & picturesque views on your private sunset cruise. Dine like locals as you experience a low country boil in a historic raised Tybee cottage circa 1918. Signature drinks upon arrival. Learn how Southerners entertain at Savannah's playground! Tonight you will enter as guests, and leave as family!

MONDAY, March 26

Breakfast at hotel. Taxi to airport on your own. Return home with fond memories of your stay in "Your Savannah."
